a new Bulgarian resistance organization recently was activated in the mountains of the Sliven administrative district in Bulgaria. It allegedly is headed by Asen Stamboliski, the son of Alexander Stamboliski. if true, this is the first indication of resistance activity in the Sliven region. In the past Asen Stamboliski has been either in prison or under house arrest, but it is possible that he has escaped to the mountains.

a broadcasting station is being operated by a resistance group in Bulgaria. The station broadcasts at about 8:30 p.m., Yugoslav time, between 56.3 and 60 meters on short wave. Many Bulgarians believe that this station is operated by the Bulgarian Government.

Comment:

Asen Stamboliski is in jail either in Sofia or Belene. It is questionable whether this group is actually being led by him or is just using his name.
